

Summary of Bargaining for Joint Communication

Bargaining Series #2 - March 1-2, 2016

All team members present: Lisa Radmer, Jeff Hogan, Chris Jackson, Nate Ziemkowski, Ryan Stokes, Freedom Johnson, Rhonda Schmidt, Lynn Bradwell, Warren Hopkins, Tony Manjarrez, Jamie Siegel (Facilitator). Ray Wilson and Amy Wright were unable to attend on March 1st due to Kindergarten registration. School Board observers: Geoff Doy (3/1), Dan Popp (3/1), and Carolyn Simpson (3/2)

Summary from Jeff Hogan and Lisa Radmer:

- Reviewed notes from prior meeting.
- Lisa Radmer shared a document that illustrated some of the key components of a desirable work place.
- Team had good follow-up discussion around some of the topics surfaced in previous bargaining session. Brainstorming led to revisions to the contract and there are now four Tentative Agreements in place.
- Team continued to practice Interest Based Bargaining Five step process, while discussing issues and concerns in four different sections of the contract. Three issues and concerns were presented by SVEA and there was one joint issue discussed.
- Ryan Stokes provided more information to the team on comparable districts.
- An issue around Sick Leave reporting was discussed. Ideas were generated and an understanding was reached that won't require contract language.
