

Peter Scott, Ed.D.

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Peter Scott has dedicated his career to ensuring each student in his care is well prepared to pursue the bright future of their choosing. As Deputy Superintendent of Everett (WA) Public Schools, Dr. Scott serves a diverse and vibrant community of 20,000 students and leads teaching and learning priorities in all 27 schools. Additionally, he leads strategic initiatives in the areas of systems improvement, principal leadership development, transformative instructional technology, and student support services. Prior to his appointment as Deputy Superintendent, Dr. Scott served as Associate Superintendent of Curriculum, Assessment, and Special Programs in Everett. In this role, he led college/career connected learning, social-emotional supports, assessment and research, early learning program expansion, and curriculum and instructional design. Dr. Scott has served as a regional Assistant Superintendent in Everett supervising 10 schools while leading for equity in teaching and learning investments, family and community engagement, and on-time graduation improvement. He is passionate about creating environments where all students can be their full selves and has a track record of narrowing gaps in student learning.

Prior to his system-level leadership roles, Dr. Scott served as a middle school principal and assistant principal, leading teams who were recognized by multiple Washington Achievement Awards for student learning growth and high levels of performance. He began his career teaching middle school special education and mathematics in Oakland, CA and Boston, MA. Dr. Scott holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from the University of California at Davis, a Master of Education degree with a concentration in Administration, Planning & Social Policy from Harvard University, and a Doctor of Education degree in Educational Leadership & Policy Studies from the University of Washington. He and his wife of 21 years have three wonderful children ages 14, 11, and 7. In his free time, he enjoys hiking and biking the beautiful Pacific Northwest with his family.
