

Online Learning Student Self- Assessment
Is Online Right For You?

Student's Name _____

Please mark the following prompts on a scale of 1-5 about your own learning needs and abilities.

5=Always 4=Usually 3=Sometimes 2=Rarely 1=Never

As a student, I....

- Communicate regularly with Mentor and Instructors
- Am self motivated and able to learn independently
- Manage time well
- Am able to commit to studying certain hours per week, per course
- Am able to communicate in writing
- Am a self-advocate and will speak up if I have problems
- Ask questions when I do not understand something
- Have a support system with family, friends, students and other teachers
- Can complete and submit assignments regularly
- Have the ability to work independently
- Have a willingness to seek out answers to my questions, or to move on to a different subject until the necessary help is available.
- Have the willingness to ask for help when needed. There will be many opportunities to get help from your mentor, online teacher, other students, or from technical support. I am willing to make use of these resources and let someone know if I don't understand something.
- Have internal motivation to succeed in the program.